FROM THEIR MAJESTIES

Greetings unto the populace of the Outlands from Cameron and AnneAliz.

We thank all who journeyed to Atenveldt to support Our Kingdom at Estrella. We write this in early February, packed and on Our way to war. Regardless of the final tally of points, We will have gone there united, and that is a great victory. We hope everyone had a good time, and a safe trip.

We would like to thank those who have worked for the past year to make Estrella a success for the Outlands: Sir Haroun, Countess Berengaria, Don Ian, Don Triffin and Doña Ainrea in the marshalate; THLd Peregrine, Baron Thorfinn and Lady Albreanna in the archery marshalate; THLdy Marie and Contesâ Mikhailina in A&S, and all of the local officers who saw that the populace was prepared for war. We would also like to thank Countess Kathryn for running Our encampment. For the hundreds of hours of planning and running the camp we are most grateful. Thank you.

Our College of St. Golias is hosting Our crown tournament this month. We invite all members of the populace to come witness the honor and valor of those who would fight for the right to be the heirs to the Crown. Their coronation will take place in Duthaich Beinne Aird in May. Make plans to go and celebrate Their coronation. Next month there are both the Kingdom A&S in Gleann Meadonach, and the Known World A&S in Caerthe. These events look to be very informative and fun, and we hope to see many of you there.

FROM THE SENESCHAL

Unto the good people of the Kingdom of the Outlands, greetings from Maestra Francesca di Pavia, Kingdom Seneschal:

Crown Tournament is upon us! I remind all who would fight for the Crown that Letters of Intent are due in Their Majesties' hands by Monday, March 2.

A season of intensive arts and sciences events is also upon us! First, I call everyone's attention to the Outlands Heraldic and Scribal Symposium, taking place in the College of Tygre's Keep at the end of this month. There should be much of interest to heralds and scribes (and would-be heralds and scribes) of all knowledge and ability levels.

Our Kingdom's annual Arts and Sciences Competition will be held April 11 in the Shire of Gleann Medonach. All are encouraged to enter and share their skills and knowledge with others in the Kingdom.

April 18 and 19 will see the artisans of the Known World gathering in the Barony of Caerthe. The KNOWN WORLD Arts and Sciences Symposium is an unparalleled opportunity to learn from the best. I encourage all to attend.

As a final note, I will be stepping down as Kingdom Seneschal at Coronation, May 9-10. Anyone interested in the position is asked to send letters of application to me and to Their Majesties by April 11.

In service to Crown and Kingdom,

Francesca

FROM THE WHITE STAG HERALD

Unto the good people of the Outlands, Artan macAilin, White Stag Principal Heralds sends greetings.

I hope you are all well and prospering.

Congratulations to Lord Pendar the Bard, Rampart Herald, on his admittance into the Order of the Stag's Heart for all of his work as the Outlands submissions herald. Thank you so much for all of your excellent service. I also wish to thank everyone in the College of Heralds who worked so hard on sending me their doomsday reports, they made my doomsday report so much easier to write.

Their Majesties, Cameron of the Outlands and his fair Queen AnneAliz, have requested a processional of all entrants and consorts into the upcoming Crown Tournament in Saint Golias, March 14, 1998. Each couple will need to provide an escorting herald to announce them, and their accomplishments to the Crown. If you have any questions about this please contact myself or Lord Iannan, Blue Iris Herald, at our addresses on the inside cover of the Outlandish Herald.

The Outlands continues to have an excellent pass rate of all name, device, and badge submissions at the College of Arms. I encourage everyone who has yet to do so, to contact your local herald and begin the submissions process. Heraldry is one of the most important aspects of the middle ages and I heartily recommend everyone to become involved.

The Kingdom Heralds & Scribes Collegium will be held in Dragonsspine, March 28, 1998. I hope everyone has an opportunity to attend. Mistress Jaellle of Armida, Laurel Queen of Arms is planning on attending, and it will be a wonderful opportunity to meet the SCA College of Arms highest officer.

I thank you for your time and I remain in service to TRM and the Outlands,

Artan

FROM THE BREWERS' GUILD MASTER

The Outlands Brewers and Spiritmakers Guild now has a home page on the World Wide Web. The URL is:

http://www.pcisys.net/~ronkrob/brewer.htm

The home page is new and needs your help. Stop in and share a recipe, a favorite internet link, or give your thoughts and ideas on what should be included in the Guild bylaws. Don't forget to add your name to the members list. The success of the home page depends on the input of the brewers throughout the Kingdom and I hope to see all those interested in the brewing arts visiting often.

Lord Stefan Langskeggr

Think you can create garb more spectacular than Maestra Francesca?
Spin a tale better than The Honorable Lady Caelte?
Paint more glorious scrolls than The Honorable Lady Brennain?
Heal more people with herbs than Baroness Leonora?
Outfit an archer better than Lord Cachmin the Fletcher?
Then come on down to the Outlands Kingdom Arts and Sciences Event on April 11th.

KINGDOM OF THE OUTLANDS ARTS AND SCIENCES COMPETITION JUDGING CRITERIA

All entries will be scored on a 0 to 30 point system as described below.

Documentation (0 to 4 points):

Judges will rate the quality and comprehensiveness of documentation. Although minimal documentation is required, extra points shall be awarded if the entrant discusses:

* Precedent or rationale for original work or deviations from period norms
* How the entry fits into period styles
* Appropriateness of entry to a specific occasion, person, use, etc.
* Primary source references

Clear, typed, well-organized, and concise documentation is preferred. Avoid extraneous material.

Authenticity (0 to 4 points):

Judges will rate how "period" the entry is, in terms of style, function, appearance, combination of elements, etc. A piece will score lower if the entrant used non-period elements or tools and materials. Judges should assume an entry is constructed with modern materials and tools unless otherwise stated in the documentation. A score of 4 goes to the piece that, in the judge's opinion, would have been accepted without question by a period audience.

Complexity (0 to 6 points):

Judges will rank the attempt, not the success, of the entry. Judges assign ranking in a number of broad areas such as scope of endeavor, techniques required, and variety of elements combined. Entries that attempt very little or deal with styles in which simplicity was the norm will score lower here than entries that attempt a great deal. Likewise, if a simply-made end product depends upon extensive construction of tools and forms, it should be considered highly ambitious.

Workmanship (0 to 6 points):

Judges rank the success of the attempt. This includes how well the entry does what it was meant to do, how well its various elements work together, how skillfully the details are handled, etc.

Creativity (0 to 4 points):

Judges rank the extent of originality and innovation shown by the entrant, but the creativity shown must be in a period context (i.e., substituting one logical element for another). Extra points should be awarded for appropriateness to a particular person, occasion, use, etc.

Judge's Observation (0 to 6 points):

This is a totally subjective ranking of the entry's total effect (oh-ahh!). This is the only place where a judge's personality and private opinions should be allowed to influence scoring.

A SWORDED AFFAIRE

al-Barran, April 25, AS XXXII (1998)

Rogues and rapierists, sharpen your blades and buckle on your swashes for the light weapons event of the season. The Barony of al-Barran is once again proud to present "A Sworded Affaire". There will be several tournaments to test your skill and your mettle; there will be childrens' activities in the church during the day, and feasting, dancing, and exhibitions of skill and wit during the evening. Lady Sabia of St. Kildas has planned a feast for the eye, as well as the palate, and HRM AnneAliz, Patroness of the Defenders of the White Scarf will be there to inspire and encourage. There will be provisions made for fighters who feel they lack the finesse for the fence, and therefore wish to smash and bash.

Indoor festivities will be at the St. Thomas of Canterbury church, 425 University NE. Outdoor activities will be at the UNM Duck Pond across the street from the church. Both sites are in Albuquerque, NM. Fees: $5 site, $7 feast.

Bofharrach, June 19-21, AS XXXIII (1998)

Once again in the green pastures of Bofharrach there will be a weekend of frolic and fun as we celebrate that most loved animal of our canton, the cow! We will be playing in the same location as past years, the privately owned land east of Kersey. There will be fighting, fencing, archery, equestrians tourneys, and Hawks Hollow will be joining us for a Sunday filled with melees. We will also be choosing a champion of Bofharrach, to be selected by a test of strength, wits, speed, and athletic ability on the field of our version of the Highland games. Some childrens' activities will be available.

The Equestrian Tourney fee will be $8.00 per rider; you must be an authorized rider and a paid member of the SCA to ride. If you are bringing a horse, reservations must be made through the Autocrat in advance. Free pasture is available but you must bring your own method of confinement. If you wish to ride, but do not have your own horse, please contact the Autocrat to see if there will be horses available.

We will also be holding a fundraiser to benefit the Kingdom Equestrian Guild. You can have your picture taken on a fully caparisoned horse for a small fee! Take it home and show it off to all your friends and family.
